conduct of young people and others at the time of holding the Meeting on Mary Edwards Elizabeth Ellington and Jane Ridgway.

The report to the Quarterly Meeting.

1st By all the answers it appears that our meetings on first days are attend-ed by a considerable number, but several mention those in the afternoon to be too much neglected - and two others make the same remark concerning those on the week day - The Hour nearly observed. the use of [illegible] being a [illegible] [illegible] would be useful - mention is made that drowsiness appears in our meeting

2d Love and Unity subsist in a good degree and we believe there is a care in many minds to discourage the evils mentioned in this Query no difference appears amongst us -

9th Care is extended respecting the discipline, tho' a more lively care [illegible] at times thought would be useful.

Friends appointed to visit Lucretia Middleton have performed that service but had not the satisfaction they desired. her case is still continued.

The Certificate requested for Mary Hunter is still delayed and the same friends who were appointed to confer with Monmouth friends on her case, are now appointed to visit her.

Friends who were appointed to attend the marriage of Samuel Haines and Mary Stevenson jun.r report it to have been orderly accomplished.

Robert Haines and Mary Elton appeared here the second time and continued their intentions of marriage - no objection appearing they are left at liberty to accomplish the same, Grace Buchanan and Hannah Pryor are appointed to attend thereon -

Sarah Willets produced a certificate from the monthly meeting at Trenton which was read and received -

The two Certificates signed last month for Rebecca and Sarah Jobs were drawn by mistake - accordingly as Rebecca is going to Woodbury to live and requests one there, hers with some alterations is to be sent thither and Sarah's to be lodged with friends here as she is likely to continue within the verge of this Meeting -

Our beloved friend Lydia Hoskins being returned produced Certificates giving satisfactory account of her religious labours and also of her conduct corresponding therewith [illegible] one of which mentions there not [illegible] but she desires the peace of Those who remember their Creator in the days of their youth — all of which were read and acceptably received by us - Hannah [illegible] requests a Certificate of removal. Ann [illegible] and Mary Haskins are appointed to enquire concerning her - Friends appointed to visit Mary Randolph have fulfilled their appointment, finding little satisfaction with her. it is the united sense of this Meeting to testify against her and disown her being of our religious society Mary Stevenson and Beulah Ridgway are to inform her thereof -
